NARRATIVE:

Steve Young has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 25. His convictions include forgery, possession of narcotic controlled substances, failure to appear, theft, false ID to a peace officer, petty theft with prior convictions, violation of parole, burglary, battery, robbery, transport/sale of narcotic controlled substances, and grand theft from a person. He has served multiple incarcerations, the longest being a 3 year term for transport/sale of narcotic controlled substances. Young was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on September 22, 2014. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in April 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Young qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for petty theft with prior convictions is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
